From Haifa port

Jerusalem – approximately 8 hours

Depart Haifa Port and head south along the coastal plain to the Judean Hills. Ascend to the City of Jerusalem, pausing on the Mount of Olives for a spectacular view of the Old City dominated by the mosques on the Temple Mount. View the churches that dot the mountainside including the Russian Orthodox Church with its onion shaped towers and the teardrop shaped Dominus Fleuit Church (John 11:35). Descend towards the Old City passing by the Church of All Nations and the Garden of Gethsemane and enter the Old City near the Western Wall. Part of the retaining wall of the Temple Mount and the last remnants of the Jewish Temple not destroyed by the Romans in 70 CE. It has remained the center of the Jewish World for over 1900 years.

Pause for lunch at a local restaurant in the Old City (on own).

Cross into the colorful Arab Shuk (bazaar) and walk to the Via Dolorosa where we will follow the Stations of the Cross to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Within the church we will find the final Stations of the Cross including Golgotha and the Tomb of Christ (we shall not enter the Tomb nor Golgotha). Depart the Old City via Jaffa Gate and return to Haifa

Tel Aviv & Caesarea – approximately 8 hours

Depart Haifa and drive south along the shores of the Mediterranean Sea.

Tour the ancient city of Caesarea, once the largest port in the Eastern Mediterranean. Try out the acoustics at the Roman Theatre, still used for performances today, before exploring the Crusader Fortress.

Travel from old to new as you arrive in the metropolis of Tel Aviv. In the heart of the city are many examples of Bauhaus architecture – more than in any other city in the world. See stately Rothschild Boulevard, where the State of Israel was born before observing some of Tel Aviv's different and often conflicting sides. Pause for lunch (on own). Explore the ancient Port of Jaffa and hear about the famous people linked with the town: Jonah and his Whale, Andromeda, Simon the Tanner, Richard the Lion Hearted, Napoleon and more. Follow the seaside promenade north along the Mediterranean and see some of Tel Aviv's beautiful beaches. Pause on the promenade time permitting only. Return to Haifa port.

Haifa Baha'i Gardens and Akko – approximately 4 hours

Depart the port and drive along the foot of the Carmel Mountain, through Haifa and ascend to Yefe Nof Street for a birds' eye panoramic view. On a clear day you will see Akko and even as far as Lebanon. The city of Haifa stretches out below you are the magnificent Baha'i Gardens. Housed within the formal gardens are the Shrine of the Bab housing the remains of the founder of the Baha'i faith which is topped with a distinctive gold dome and the buildings of the Baha'i World Centre. Hear about the Baha'i faith before travelling from the modern city of Haifa to Akko (Acre). The city dates back to Biblical times but its richest history was in the times of the Crusaders. Captured by Baldwin I in 1106 it was the main port for the Kingdom of Jerusalem. Akko was the last stronghold of the Crusaders falling to the Mamelukes in 1291. We will explore the Knights Halls and the secret escape passage stretching under the city. After a short walk through the colorful Shuk (bazaar) past the White Mosque and the Port Walls (that stood up to Napoleon's assault) you will return to the Haifa Port. 14:00
